FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN.

Women are not such exacting creatures after all. The Sultan of Turkey has his affections among 494 wives and they are all content.

Miss Carrie Bartlett, formerly a editor of the Oshkosh Times, married a preacher and fills the pulpit of the First Unitarian Church in St. Paul.

A St. Louis woman has invented a washboard for which she has been awarded $3000. It has a pocket in it for soap.

Ten per cent of the county Superintendents of schools in Dakota are women. They are said to average better than the men in ability and faithfulness in duty.

Miss Susan Wood, who was recently awarded by the London University her teacher's diploma in heart, theory and practice, is the only woman in the world who has won such distinction.

Women are making great headway in Kansas. The Supreme Court of that state has just decided that a married

The tribulations of society lest young Princesses of Wales, should properly dressed are at an end, since the elder has made her appearance in pink and blue satin with all the required toggery.

Mr. Ella Grant Campbell, of Cleveland, O., is the proprietor of the famous Jennings Avenue Green-houses. She began business about fifteen years ago with a little girl with a single basket of bouquets.

That woman is herself her best predictor is proved by Lilian Leland, a bright and graphic correspondent. She is described as petite and pretty, just out of her twenties, and has traveled farther and seen more countries than other women. She has made numerous expeditions abroad and in

Miss Alice Jordan, who took the degree of bachelor of laws at the Yale law school last June, has just been admitted to practice in the superior court at Lansing, Michigan.

Mrs. Dinah Mulock Craik thinks women united to bad husbands ouster their children's sake, to leave them not by divorce, which only enables bad men to make other women unhappy, but by judicial separation.

Elizabeth Akers Allen, the author of Rock Me to Sleep, Mother, is described as a handsome woman of imposing presence, with gray hair fresh complexion. She now rests them to sleep, mother, herself.

Having in our official capacity as members of the Plymouth Hospital Committee been asked to test and prepare the effectiveness of many different articles to be used as disinfectants in rooms and as preventives of infection, we report that Darbys Prophylactic fluid has been thoroughly tested during treatment of the epidemic in the Official Paper of the County.

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.
THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 19, 1887.

The present number of the BANNER begins its fifty-fifth volume.

Mr. R. B. HAYES has been tendered the presidency of the Ohio State University.

The Germans in New York say they will fight their beer if they have to fight for it.

An alliterative Presidential ticket is proposed in the persons of Cleveland and Carlisle. Don't you C?

The British Commissioners and the Virginia Legislature could not agree on a settlement of the State debt.

Rev. Dr. McGlynn will go to Rome with his choice—either to go to Rome within forty days or else be excommunicated.

A new paper, with a capital stock of $50,000, divided into $25,000 shares, is to be started in Cincinnati. Now, look out for the millennium.

We don't take any stock in the story that John Sherman thinks of resigning the Senatorship to run for Governor of Ohio.

A verdict has been rendered against an ex-convict, Ramsey, for $70,000, the amount he deposited in a bank which failed.

Ten thousand emigrants were landed at Castle Garden, New York, on Wednesday of last week, which beats any former record.

Mrs. U. S. GRANT had a serious attack of pneumonia over a week ago, which threatened her life, but she is now considered out of danger.

Dr. S. H. BERGIN, one of the most prominent citizens of Toledo, and a practitioner in that city for thirty years, died on Sunday of a congestive chill.

PARKER has returned to London, but too unwell to resume his seat in Parliament, but his presence there will be of immense advantage to his Liberal allies.

Sweet peace now dwell in the Republican household. Gen. Charles Grosvenor is out in favor of the renomination of "skin-cane" Foraker for Governor.

The Michigan House of Representatives, by a vote of 38 to 34, has passed the high license law, which places a tax of $500 on wholesale and $400 on retail liquor houses.

There are five Democrats who wish to serve the people of Licking county in the Legislature, viz: George W. Yearly, David H. Pigg, Fred Dinan, S. B. Blue and Benjamin Brownfield.

The printing of the three volumes of the Ohio report has been taken from the Globe Printing Company, of Springfield, and given to the Werner Printing and Manufacturing Company of Akron.

JOHN SHERMAN, by invitation of the Republican members of the Ohio Legislature, will deliver a political speech before that body on the 1st of June. Bro. John is beginning to get in his work against Bro. Jim.

TRINER, one of the negro murderers of Miss Bowman, at Louisville, pleaded guilty last Friday, and was sentenced to be hung on Friday, July 1st. Patterson, the other negro engaged in the murder, claims that he can prove an alibi.

The reckless London Times, which recently published a villainous forged letter of Mr. Parnell, and has not had the manliness to acknowledge and correct it, now hints that Smith O'Brien should be arrested in Canada for sedition.

WHILE a deficit of 40,000,000 bushels wheat wheat is predicted, compared with last year's production, in Dakota and Minnesota alone, the spring wheat crop here will be at least 10,000,000 bushels more than last year, or between 80,000,000 and 30,000,000 bushels.

Hon. JOHN McBRIDE, who was the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State in 1885, is clearly of the opinion that Gen. Thomas E. Powell, of Delaware, is the strongest and most available man the Democrats can nominate for Governor the present year.

The Republicans of Kentucky have nominated a full State ticket, headed by Hon. W. O. Bradley, of Lancaster, for Governor, and Mat O'Doherty, of Louisville, for Lieutenant Governor. Gen. Buckner and his lady will beat that ticket half a hundred thousand.

JAMES G. BLAINE will sail for Europe on the 8th of June. Two double steamers on the steamship line, of the North German Lloyd Line, have been engaged for himself, his wife and his two daughters. Captain Junge, one of the best sailors on the Atlantic, will look after his comfort.

Among those spoken of as successors to Justice Woods on the Supreme Court bench, are: Ex-Governor Hoadly, J. Randolph Tucker, Senator Hugh, of Alabama; Senator George, of Mississippi; and Judge Howell Jackson, of Tennessee. The appointment seems to be conceded to the South.

The people of Findlay are making arrangements for celebrating the discovery of natural gas at that place, on the 9th, 10th and 11th of June. Invitations have been sent to nearly all the distinguished men of the country. Doubtless a great deal of gas will be shot off on the occasion.

The latest estimate of the surplus revenue for the fiscal year puts it at $140,000,000. This is at least $100,000,000 more than the government can expend for any proper purpose. It is unnecessary taxation to that extent. There is only one proper thing to do in such a case, and that is to reduce taxation.

On May 29, at Minneapolis, will be the corner stone of the first labor temple in the world, erected wholly by the efforts of organized labor. There will be a big parade and imposing ceremonies under the auspices of the Knights of Labor. Victor Drury, of Pennsylvania, will be the orator. The building cost $65,000.

A CYCLOPEE swept over Gage county, Nebraska, on Friday, striking the town of B'n'o Springs. All telegraph wires are down, and only meager particulars are at hand. Several houses were leveled and a church unroofed. One man at least was fatally injured, and a woman was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

Smith O'Brien and Lord Lansdowne.

Smith O'Brien, editor of the United Ireland, Dublin, has been visiting at every point in Canada he visited. At Montreal and Quebec, immense crowds turned out to receive him, and listen to his speeches, which are chiefly devoted to an exposition of the rack-renting and oppression of Lord Lansdowne, the present Governor-General of Canada. When Mr. O'Brien announced his purpose to visit Toronto, the most excitement sprung up, from the fact that Lord Lansdowne was making his home in that city. The Mayor of the city addressed Mr. O'Brien a letter, advising him not to visit the place, as he feared trouble, but the brave Irishman declared that he would go. Lord Lansdowne, it is said, advised the Mayor to allow Mr. O'Brien to speak, as the forcible opposition, which was threatened, would only have the effect of creating sympathy for O'Brien, and be productive of more harm than good. In anticipation of trouble, orders were issued for the militia to be under arms on Saturday. The "loyalists" of Toronto held an immense meeting on Saturday, some 15,000 persons being present, and resolutions were adopted which aimed at Mr. O'Brien's mission to Canada. The principal speaker was the Bishop of Algona. The proceedings of the meeting were telegraphed to Lord Salisbury in London.

P. S. In spite of all opposition, Mr. O'Brien spoke in Toronto, on Tuesday last, before a large assembly of people. An Orange mob undertook to hiss and howl him down, but free speech was triumphant. It required one hundred and fifty police to keep the turbulent element under tolerable control. The anticipated riot and bloodshed were averted, although there were not a few sore heads and broken noses. Lord Lansdowne was mercilessly excoriated by Mr. O'Brien.

"Booms" and "Booms" and "Booms." People have not rushed to Florida the past winter, as aforesaid. Indeed, the winter season has been so quiet that the people almost to insanity, has "boomed," and those who paid fabulous prices for little spots of land, expecting to realize fortunes in the orange business, find that their money has been thrown away, never to return.

The Findlay, Lima, Fostoria and Bowling Green craze in Ohio, and the paper war between the people of the two States, is scarcely ever spoken of now. Hotel statistics show that 7,000 fewer people visited Florida the past winter than formerly, and as each visitor left at least $100 there, the falling off in this source of income to the hotels was about $700,000, not to speak of investments in real estate. But as the people of this country go by "fits and starts," it is quite probable that after they get cured of the Kansas fever, Florida may take another start upward. For the present, however, those who expect to realize quick fortunes in the South, have been making investments in the coal and iron lands of Alabama and West Virginia.

The country becomes glutted with iron, and two or three times more is produced than can possibly be consumed, then a reaction will take place, and the iron bubble will also burst. Of course these few remarks are not intended to discourage people who think they will acquire sudden wealth by putting their good money in every new venture that is started.

Senator McPherson for Cleveland. Senator McPherson, of New Jersey, who has been referred to as an opponent of Cleveland, has been mentioned on record as his earnest friend and supporter. In a recent interview he was asked if Mr. Cleveland would get the New Jersey delegation. "Certainly," was the reply. "He will get the delegation from New Jersey and from every other State. I think Mr. Cleveland will have no opposition in the convention. I know of no man who will put himself up in convention against him. I know of no man in either party who could stand against him with the people. He will get the delegations from New York and New Jersey, and every other State in the convention."

Further on in the interview he said: "If the labor party puts an independent ticket in the field it will probably be as well with Mr. Hovett in the election of mayor-men regardless of party will turn in and vote for Cleveland and elect him. There is no man in public life to-day who is as popular throughout the country. As I said before, he is the best thing the party can do is to re-nominate him, and the best for the country and for the people to elect him."

SENATOR O'NEIL, of Muskingum, has been favorably spoken of as a Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, an officer who has been mentioned to preside over the Senate of Ohio. Senator O'Neill was elected President pro tem. of the late Senate but was deprived of the position by the arbitrary, tyrannical and unconstitutional rulings of Bob Kennedy, and for this reason alone, he is entitled to the sympathy and support of the Democracy of Ohio. Senator O'Neill is a gentleman of superior intellect, possesses remarkable executive abilities, and is a splendid parliamentarian. To search the State over we cannot think of a man who is better fitted to fill the office of Lieutenant Governor than Hon. John O'Neill. We think the nomination should be conferred upon him without a dissenting voice.

The steamer City of Rio Janeiro, which arrived at San Francisco May 11, brings news of a terrible marine disaster in the Straits settlement. The steamer Benton, playing between Singapore and Penang and Malacca, was run into about midnight, March 29, by the steamer Fair Penang, shortly after leaving Malacca, and sank within half an hour. Of the two hundred persons aboard only fifty thus far are known to have been saved. Most of those lost were women and children. The Fair Penang continued on her way. Loss to the vessel and cargo is $60,000.

The New York Assembly, by a vote of 67 to 30, resolved in favor of exterminating that abominable pest, the English sparrow. This is a magnificent act of statesmanship, and it succeeds other States should at once follow the noble example. Gov. Foraker should recommend the measure to the next Legislature of Ohio. We have heretofore been of the opinion that it would be as impossible to exterminate sparrows as to exterminate flies and blackbirds; but perhaps we were mistaken. We shall wait with anxiety the result of this movement in New York.

At Akron last Thursday evening, Emma Mahrey, while walking along the sidewalk, failed to notice a depression in the walk, and stepping down suddenly received a shock that started her into the street. She was carried into a house near by and in a few minutes died of her injuries. Her mother was prostrated by the shocking news.

Horrible Double Murder Near Steubenville.

Mrs. Druecker, Mrs. McWha, and her daughter Mrs. Eliza Baker, residing at Holiday's Cove, Brooke county, West Va., a few miles east of Steubenville, were the victims of a horrible murder, the husband of the last named woman, says that upon returning from Cross Creek village he found his wife and mother-in-law cold in death, with their skulls crushed in with an iron bar and an axe, the blood-stained missiles lying alongside of the victims. The murder was undoubtedly committed for the purpose of robbing Mrs. McWha, who was known to be quite wealthy. All the bureau drawers and trunks in the house were found open, and considerable money taken. Five men who said they were going to work on the Pan Handle railroad, and rented a piece of ground from Mrs. McWha on which to erect a shanty, are suspected as the murderers. This is Baker's story; and as he has made contradictory statements in regard to his whereabouts at the time of the murder, he has been arrested, to await development. Baker once taught school at Colina, Ohio, and he also lived at the Black Hills and at Beaver, Pa.; but at none of these places did he leave a good character behind him. The feeling against him is very strong, and already a lynx law is freely discussed in the neighborhood. The double funeral of Mrs. McWha and Mrs. Baker took place on the 14th inst., and was attended by an immense concourse of people from West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

P. S.—The coroner's jury, after a full investigation of the case, brought in a verdict as follows: "The deceased came to their deaths by being struck on the head with an iron bar and an axe in the hands of Van B. Baker." Baker has been committed to jail until June, when the grand jury meets.

RECENT DEATHS.

Rev. Dr. Timothy C. Pitkin, an eminent Episcopal divine, died at Detroit on the 11th inst. He came from a distinguished and patriotic Connecticut family.

Dr. William E. Moore, a well-known physician and politician of Wooster, died on the 11th inst., after a protracted illness, of a complication of diseases, aged 65 years. He was a gentleman of fine literary tastes, and a poet of considerable merit.

Charles P. Duane, a pioneer in California, and one of the most conspicuous figures in San Francisco during the past thirty years, and who became noted as a pugilist, politician and duelist, died on Saturday. He was a terror to all with whom he differed in opinion.

Justice Wm. B. Woods, of the United States Supreme Court, died at Washington, on Saturday, of dropsy, complicated with pulmonary and other troubles. Mr. Woods was born at Newark, at which place he resided until the war broke out, when he went into the army, and became a Brigadier General. At the close of the war he took up his residence at Mobile, where he was chosen State Chancellor. He was afterwards appointed by Gen. Grant United States Circuit Judge for the Fifth District, and was subsequently promoted to the Supreme Bench during the Hayes Administration.

A DISPATCH from London, May 12th, says: The breach in the personal relations of Gladstone with Lord Hartington and Chamberlain is now complete. Until recently their political differences did not count as a cessation of their personal intercourse. Now, however, when they meet in the lobbies of the house of commons they do not speak and do not even exchange salutations. Chamberlain sits close to Gladstone in the house, but neither makes a sign of recognition.

The funeral of Justice Woods (whose death is noticed elsewhere in this week's BANNER) took place at Newark, on Tuesday, and was attended by a very immense concourse of people of that city and county, besides officials from the City of Newark, and all the business of the city suspended for 2 o'clock, until the funeral obsequies ended. The people, without regard to party or sect, united in showing respect to the memory of their former distinguished townman.

The supreme council of the Catholic Knights of America concluded its biennial session at Chicago, on the 13th of June. Coleman, New Orleans, was elected supreme president; O. F. O'Rourke, Fort Wayne, vice president; John Barr, Lebanon, Ky., secretary; M. J. O'Brien, Chattanooga, treasurer; J. J. Duffy, Memphis, M. McGarry, Brooklyn, and J. H. Swartz, St. Louis, trustees for six, four and two years respectively.

Gov. BEAVER, of Pennsylvania, has signed the high license bill. The act classifies liquor licenses according to the nature of the community in which business is to be carried on instead of according to the volume of sales, which is the existing basis of classification. There is a $500 license for cities of 30,000 population and over, $400 for smaller cities, $200 for boroughs and $100 for township hotels.

For a July convention, no more desirable place could be found in the wide world than Cleveland. The nights are cool there all the year around, and the delegates wish to enjoy the delightful season of rest. To drive through the beautifully shaded streets and parks, or a boat ride on Lake Erie, will afford them all the enjoyment their hearts could desire. Let us all go to Cleveland.

Mrs. MICHAEL DAVITT is exceedingly popular in Ireland. She sang at a monster concert in aid of the schools of St. Agatha's Church, Dublin, on Thursday night last, and was vociferously applauded and cheered. Among the pieces she sang were "Gonna's Ave Marie," "O'Donnell Aloo," "The Wearing of the Green" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

A TERRIBLE hail and rain storm visited the Miami Valley on Thursday last, which reached its greatest force at Xenia. Shawnee creek, which in the storm of one year ago caused such loss to life and property, again overflowed its banks and swept four feet deep through the principal streets in that town. No lives were lost but great destruction of property resulted.

QUEEN KAPOLEI went from Washington to Boston on a bee line, without stopping in New York. The Queen is said to be very fond of champagne, but they have stringent Sunday laws in New York, she probably did not wish to have any trouble there, and went right on to the old town where the people have become accustomed to baked beans and codfish balls.

JEFF DAVIS was banqueting and toasting at Meridian, Miss., on Friday last, and was crowned with flowers by ladies. Now for another howl of indignation.

GAS AND OIL.

Another big gas well has been struck near Indianapolis, Ind. A 100-barrel oil well has been struck near Elba, Washington county, Ohio, on the property of R. F. Borchman, at a depth of 1,735 feet. The territory has been abandoned recently. A dispatch from Fort Scott, Kas., May 12th says: Natural gas was struck here to-day at a depth of 280 feet. The flow is simply fabulous, and the strongest well yet obtained by more than double.

Another oil well has been added to the Anglin county already big list of gushers. It is on the Slocum farm, two and one-half miles Southwest of Mt. Mary, and is producing nearly 1,000 barrels per day.

At Lima, on Friday last, the new oil well on the Ridenour farm, commenced its work, and a 250-barrel tank was filled in less than three hours. The well is now regularly pouring out three thousand barrels per day.

The Blair gas well at Newark was torped on Thursday last, with rather favorable results. A strong flow of natural gas followed the explosion, and when a lighted match was applied "a tongue of fire darted in the air," to quote the Advocate. "It was a stronger flame than any heretofore known, and was most encouraging to the projectors of the well."

A special from Mattoon, Ill., says while driving a well on the farm of James Cunningham, two miles from that place, natural gas was struck which shoots a flame, when lighted, thirty feet in the air. Recently a company was formed to hunt for gas in this county and the company have secured the Cunningham well. It is a pronounced gusher.

The citizens' gas well, No. 1, at Fostoria, Ohio, is a gusher, being but 12 feet into the Trenton rock and is flowing at the rate of 5,000,000 feet per day, the flow increasing with each stroke of the drill. The roar of the escaping gas can be heard for two miles and the gas is being used for domestic purposes. The well, with its gas, is being used for domestic purposes.

THE KNOX COUNTY DEMOCRAT, the paper which was to "run out" Lecky Harper's BANNER, has turned its toes sideways, and is now publishing the BANNER. Another record failed at starting an opposition paper. Delaware Herald.

HENCE THESE TEARS.

A Few Comments on the Demise of the Late "Only Democratic" Paper in Knox County.

The Knox County Democrat, a newspaper started in Mt. Vernon in opposition to the BANNER, suspended after being published twenty-one weeks. —Mt. Vernon Herald.

The Knox County Democrat, started a few weeks since by a couple of sore heads, has gone up the spout, and the projectors must have been so generous in their pocket books in trying to run a "long felt want."

It was a plain case of inevitable death, from the very birth of the concern, the BANNER was established a newspaper graveyard for the receipt of all such visionary concerns that may attempt the folly in the future. —Newark Advocate.
